

I do not want the burden of 24/7 staffing to be mandatory for the non-commercial Christian radio stations. With all else that is on the radio, Christian radio is one of the few formats that allow me to allow my children to listen without worry of vulgar language, or sexual innuendo. Thank you.